Overview

Ilya has over 10 years of experience in the financial planning profession.

Ilya loves providing advice and helping clients achieve their goals and supporting them on their financial journey. Backed with his academic knowledge, experience and input from world's leading research house, he is well placed to find solutions and strategies tailored to individual needs.

More importantly than his academic record and strong technical knowledge, Ilya's natural empathy enables him to listen and understand his clients' real needs, ensuring that advice they receive is in their best interest.

Ilya loves maintaining long-term relationships to see his clients achieve their life and financial goals. He has personal experience that demonstrates what can be achieved with sound financial planning. His professional interests include retirement planning, investments, social security, estate planning and aged care.

Outside of work Ilya enjoys spending time with his family, travelling, working on DIY home projects and staying fit.

Ilya Egorov is a Sub-Authorised Representative of Financial Balance Group Pty Ltd, Corporate Authorised Representative No. 1296824. Authorised Representative No. 1001027.
